

The timeline illustrates the progression of the COVID-19 pandemic in the United States from March 2020 to March 2021. Key events include the first confirmed case in March 2020, the declaration of a public health emergency, the implementation of social distancing measures, the peak of cases in May 2020, the implementation of mask mandates, the start of vaccination in December 2020, and the end of the season in March 2021.